A BILL

To provide for school safety, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "School Safety En-
- 5 hancement Act of 1999".
- 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
- 7 Congress makes the following findings:
- 8 (1) While our Nation's schools are still rel-
- 9 atively safe, it is imperative that schools be provided

- with adequate resources to prevent incidents of violence.
- 3 (2) Approximately 10 percent of all public 4 schools reported at least 1 serious violent crime to 5 a law enforcement agency over the course of the 6 1996–1997 school year.
 - (3) In 1996, approximately 225,000 students between the ages of 12 and 18 were victims of nonfatal violent crime in schools in the United States.
 - (4) From 1992 through 1994, 76 students and 29 non-students were victims of murders or suicides that were committed in schools in the United States.
 - (5) The school violence incidents in several States across the Nation in 1998 and 1999 caused enormous damage to schools, families, and whole communities.
 - (6) Because of escalating school violence, the children of the United States are increasingly afraid that they will be attacked or harmed at school.
 - (7) A report issued by the Department of Education in August, 1998, entitled "Early Warning, Early Response" concluded that the reduction and prevention of school violence is best achieved through safety plans which involve the entire com-

1 munity, policies which emphasize both prevention 2 and intervention, training school personnel, parents, 3 students, and community members to recognize the early warning signs of potential violent behavior and 5 to share their concerns or observations with trained 6 personnel, establishing procedures which allow rapid 7 response and intervention when early warning signs 8 of violent behavior are identified, and providing ade-9 quate support and access to services for troubled 10 students.
